Senator Toy and Representative Paletko to Host Town Hall Meeting on Senior Issues

Open forum on long-term care scheduled for May 16th

LANSING – Senator Laura Toy, Chairwoman of the Senate Senior Citizen and Veterans Affairs Committee and Representative Daniel Paletko are scheduled to host a Town Hall meeting on senior issues Friday, May 16, at the Presbyterian Village in Redford, from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m.

“Serving senior citizens in the Michigan Legislature has been a passion of mine since I was elected,” Toy, R-Livonia, said. “I look forward to listening to the concerns and opinions of seniors in my district so that I may better represent their interests in the Michigan State Senate.”

The Town Hall meeting will feature an open forum on Long Term Care Issues. Brenda Roberts, State Long Term Care Ombudsman, will be in attendance to provide information and answer questions on long term care.

The meeting will be held at Presbyterian Village, located at 17383 Garfield, Redford, Michigan 48240.

Seniors and constituents who are interested in attending the meeting are encouraged to RSVP to Senator Toy’s District Office at (734) 466-4257. The district office is located on 29440 Joy Road.
